ORAL JUDGEMENT

#. Learned counsel appearing for the parties have submitted that the original Special Civil Suit No. 254/89 from which the present appeal has arisen, is still pending in the Court of learned Civil Judge(S.D.), Surat and is required to be heard and disposed of expeditiously. It is also stated that no order on merits is required to be passed in this appeal as the whole suit can be expeditiously disposed of on the basis of the evidence and merits.

#. Therefore, by consent, it is ordered that original Special Civil Suit No. 254/89 shall be heard and disposed of as expeditiously as possible and preferably before 31st March, 2001. As agreed, the parties shall cooperate in expeditious hearing of the suit and shall not seek any unnecessary adjournment. With this order, the appeal stands disposed with no order as to costs.
